Honoring Professor James E. Jones, Jr.: A Hastie Fellow Reunion and Workshop
Presented by the University of Wisconsin Law School
Friday, April 15th 2011
8 am – 5 pm
Room 7200 – Lubar Commons

AGENDA

Thursday April 14, 2011 – Meet and Greet at The Madison Concourse Hotel & Governor’s Club, 1 West Dayton Street, Madison, WI 53703. All Hastie’s coming into town should join us at the Hotel Lounge to catch up and have a drink! Peter Carstensen and others will be there from 8:00 to 9:30 p.m.

Friday April 15, 2011 – REUNION DAY

8:15-9:00 a.m. Continental breakfast, Law School, Lubar Commons 7200

9:00-9:30 a.m. Welcome and Update on the Hastie Program
Associate Dean Heinz Klug – Welcome from the Administration
Professor Richard Monette
Professor Thomas Mitchell
Professor Peter Carstensen

9:30-10:15 a.m. Returning Hastie Fellows Introduce Themselves
Returning Hasties will tell us where they are and what they are doing.

10:15 -10:30 a.m. Break

First Workshop on works in progress
Format: the presenter will briefly explain the paper followed by a discussion at the end of which the author will respond (presenter has 10 minutes, 10 minutes for discussion and a 2-3 minute response from the author)

Session I-10:30 a.m. - 12 Noon:

Professor Michelle Goodwin (Minnesota) will present Osamudia James (Miami), Predatory Ed: Public Good, Private Wealth, and the For-Profit Motive in Higher Education.

Professor Pamela Bridgewater (American) will present Thomas Mitchell (Wisconsin): A Tale of Two Communities: Separate and Unequal.

Professor Anuj Desai (Wisconsin) will present Professor Robin Barnes (Connecticut): Enjoining Selective Forced Exposure of Figures of Contemporary Society.

Professor Mario Barnes (Irvine) will present Lahny Silva (Hastie Fellow-Indian U. Indianapolis): Punitive Damages and Collateral Consequences: One in the Same.

Lunch and Keynote Address: Kim Crenshaw–12-1:15 (University Club)
Professor Jones hopes to be able to join us for this event.

Planning for the future–1:30 to 2:30 (Law School, Rm 7200, Lubar Commons)

Second Workshop on works in progress
Session II—2:45-3:45

Professor Brad Snyder (Wisconsin) will present Professor Michael Green (Texas Wesleyan): Employee Expectations of Privacy in Electronically Store Information on Employer-Provided Equipment.

Professor Linda Greene (Wisconsin) will present Adele Morrison (Wayne State): Marriage and “The Black/Gay Split:” A Critical Race Theory Intervention.

Session III—4:00-5:00: Big Ideas
(Brief presentation and comments on prospective research projects)

Shalanda Baker, current Hastie Fellow
Cary Martin, current Hastie Fellow
Professor Michael Green

Informal dinner—Peter and Carol Carstensen’s house—720 Orton Ct. 6:30

Saturday Brunch with Linda Greene, April 16th, 10:00 am - noon.
For those Hastie’s that are staying in Madison until Saturday, please join us for brunch at Linda Greene’s house. There you can fill your belly before the long day of travel ahead. The first farmer’s market of the season will take place that morning around the square as well. Enjoy the market (weather permitting) and then come to Professor Greene’s.