EVIDENCE

This year, I have decided to recommend two texts and readings from one of them. If you wish to study from a text, choose the one that is most suited to your style of learning and your budget.

The following are the suggested readings in Evidence: (1) Texts, one is by Graham C. Lilly, et al, PRINCIPLES OF EVIDENCE (6th Ed. 2011) (“Lilly”); and the second is Paul C. Giannelli, UNDERSTANDING EVIDENCE (4th Ed. 2013) (“Gianelli”); (2) some duplicated materials including law review articles, transcript excerpts and committee notes; and (3) selected cases the citation for which are provided. Those readings identified by citation are your responsibility to look up.

You will need copies of the Federal Rules of Evidence and a copy of the Wisconsin Rules of Evidence. These can be printed from the web.
