This academic course is reasonably related to the education of lawyers generally, and to my career plans specifically, because _____

I am familiar with, and agree to abide by all provisions of, Law School Rule 3.08. This rule allows me to take up to 6 non-law credits, with the Associate Dean's permission, to count toward the J.D. degree. If a subsequent course should bring me over the 6 credit limit, I understand that only those which would bring the credit total to 6 will be counted (example: 4 + 4 = 6). I would like _____ credits applied to my law degree. This is a: _____ graduate level course or _____ language course.
