So, what is Symplicity?
Symplicity

OCPD’s primary tool for event sign-ups, posting jobs, and interview scheduling

You will use it to:

- Find calendar of OCPD workshops, presentations and other events, & RSVP (e.g. the October workshops!)
- Review and apply for posted jobs
- Bid for and schedule On-Campus Interviews
- Submit resumes to employers through resume collects
- Connect with alumni through Alumni Network
- Store your application documents, including your unofficial transcript

The Job Search

I. Think broadly about yourself and your goals so you can begin to clarify your focus, and don’t assume your interests

II. Take stock of summer options with timing and resources for each
First Step: Clarify Focus
Know yourself!

- What are your strengths? Weakness?

- VIPS
  - Values, Interests, Personality, Skills

- What makes you feel fulfilled?
  - Money, family, changing policies, important clients, etc.
Thinking about where you want to live

- Do I want to be close to family?
- Do I want to live in a city, suburb, rural area, small town, or work in one and live in another?
  - Keep in mind that where you practice law can drive the type of law you practice
- Do I have geographic connections to the area where I want to practice?
  - Start building these connections as soon as possible!
  - Building geographic connections is uniquely important in the legal field
Lifestyle

- Billable hours
- Perks
- Burn out rates
- Work/life balance
- Vacations
- Commuting
Second Step: Search & Apply

Where do 1Ls work?

- Judicial Internships/Externships
- Government Agencies (local, state, and federal)
- Public Interest and Non-Profit Organizations
- Research Assistantships
- Corporations
- Clinical Education Programs
- State Bar Diversity Clerkships – Oct. 31 Info Session
- Law Firms

For a complete list of specific places where students worked, click here
What are the financial logistics?

- More unpaid vs. paid positions
- Funding may be available for public interest positions.
- There will be a presentation on funding opportunities next semester, which include OCPD, student org and outside public interest funding.
Large Law Firms

- Some accept applications December 1-15; some do not accept applications until after first semester grades.
- Hiring decisions are often based on grades and class rank.
- Some will take applications and then ask for transcripts when they become available.
- Look for diversity 1L summer opportunities.
- There are very few 1L openings at large law firms – don’t count on this option!
Small to Medium Sized Firms

- Depending on the market, some medium firms will make early spring offers.
- Most accept applications and make offers January through April on a rolling basis.
- Many hire as-needed.
- There is not a formalized application process.
- Sometimes contacting the firms is the best way to find out if they would hire rising 2Ls.
Judicial Internships

- Unpaid (note: different from judicial clerkships)
- Types of courts: federal, state, local, specialty
- Applications accepted December 1 in competitive markets for federal courts and in the spring for state and local and for UW’s Judicial Externship Program
Public Interest

Many 1Ls do public interest – many opportunities

Timing:
- National Nonprofits (ACLU, NARAL, etc.): Applications accepted December 1, 2017 and no later than January 15, 2018
- Midwest Public Interest Career Conference: Last year was February 4 (Watch emails for registration info!)
- Wisconsin Public Interest Interview Program: Interviews February 10&17 and applications due in January

Public Interest Expo
- October 24, 2017; 11:30 – 1:30 in the Atrium
- Informal “table talk” with public interest employers - a MUST if you are thinking about public interest jobs for the summer and beyond!

Most summer public interest funding deadlines are in February through April 2018

PSJD.org – Your best friend!!
Federal Government

- Federal government internships are typically volunteer 1L year; some are paid 2L year.
- A great way to get a foot in the door of the federal government.
- Deadlines vary - See the Government Honors & Internship Handbook
  - Password: BadgerCareers
- Washington DC Winter Break Trip
Government

- State & Local Government
  - Find out about these positions by contacting the organizations directly and/or through job fairs
  - Examples:
    - District Attorney
    - Public Defender
    - DOJ/Attorney General’s Office
    - Corporation Counsel
    - City Attorney
  - Agencies
- Many Wisconsin Agencies participate in Wisconsin Public Interest Interview Program & Post on Symplicity
- Other states’ agencies: Arizona Handbook, PSJD.org, Agency Websites, etc.
Corporations

- Limited opportunities
- You should have an industry-specific relationship or practice area interest
- Could be in General Counsel’s office, compliance, legal operations, etc.

Resources:
- Corporate Counsel Magazine
- Martindale
Clinical Opportunities

Examples of Clinical Opportunities at UW Law School:

- Center for Patient Partnerships
- Consumer Law Clinic
- Family Court Clinic
- Immigrant Justice Clinic
- Innocence Project
- Law and Entrepreneurship Clinic
- Legal Assistance to Incarcerated Persons
- Neighborhood Law Clinic
- Restorative Justice Project

- December 4 - Most interview invitations will go out
- February 1 at 12:00PM - Clinical offers released to students
- March 9 - Deadline for students to commit to clinical
- The clinics use the Symplicity system for applications
  - Once you are logged into Symplicity, select the OCI tab and the clinic session from the drop-down menu
  - You will be able to view clinic opportunities and the application requirements
What are Employers Seeking?

- Application Materials
  - Resume
  - Cover Letter
  - Transcript (Almost always unofficial)
  - Writing Sample
  - List of References
What are Employers Seeking?

- Hiring Criteria
  - Academics
  - Experience
- Transferable skills
  - Ability to research issues
  - Ability to draft documents and memos
  - Ability to communicate with clients
  - Ability to learn through observing hearings, trials, depositions, and meetings
Where to Look for Postings

- Symplicity
- PSJD.org
- Government Honors & Internship Handbook
- Idealist
- Indeed
- USA Jobs

Do not rely only on postings!
The Hidden Job Market

70%-80% of employment opportunities will never be formally advertised and are usually filled through informal contacts.
Importance of Networking

1 in 200 resumes will yield a job interview/job offer

1 in 12 informational interviews will do the same
Networking – OCPD Events

- Reunion Small Group Networking: October 20, 2017 in the Atrium
- Public Interest Expo: October 24, 2017
- Winter Break Trips to Washington, D.C. and Chicago
- Spring Break Trip to Twin Cities
- Pizza with Professionals – ongoing
- Resume Roundtable
- Speed Networking
- Madison Mingle and Milwaukabout
Last thought: start thinking now about the bar exam

- It’s never too early to think about the Bar Exam!
- Some states allow registration as a 1L for discounts and information:
  - Illinois
  - California
  - Ohio
Three Steps to a Successful Meeting with OCPD

1. Fill out Qualtrics survey
2. Review OCPD Materials and Website information BEFORE your meetings
3. Come prepared! This will enable your OCPD Advisor to assist in crafting your job search and strategy
Conclusion

- Now is the time to start thinking about your future!
- The more focused you are, the more competitive you will be!
- It’s a two-way street: YOU have to put the work in!
